General Items.
—Tramps are as numerous as ever.
—The dust is becoming intolerable.
—Yesterday was the most pleasant day we have had during the month.
—Large stock clothing to be sold out without reserve, at C. Hanny's.
—Mr. H. H. Cande and family are expected home next Monday or Tuesday.
—Sheriff Irvin is expected home with the man DeGrath, of New York, to-day.
—The City Council will meet for its regular monthly confab on next Tuesday night.
—The new building now occupied by Hally, the stove and tin dealer, on Commercial avenue, is being painted.
—Look at the nice gent's suits for $6.50, you can buy at Heilbron & Well's.
—The election to choose several county officers, will come off on the third day of November.
—A new board of Directors of the Alexander County Bank is to take place soon, President Brown says.
—Mrs. Susie Williams, a lady in her eightieth year, says the Sun died in this city Tuesday night.
—The ball of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, on Monday evening, October 18, 1876, must not be forgotten.
—The young folks are talking up nutting parties. We understand the hickory nut and pecan crops are very large this year.
—The Silver Cornet band accompanied the Morris Minstrel troupe to Charleston yesterday, and led the company in their street parade.
—For boys' clothing of all descriptions and lowest prices, go to Heilbron & Well's.
—Mr. C. Ritter, of the firm of C. & L. Ritter, of Jonesboro, was in the city yesterday. Mr. Ritter was formerly a resident of Cairo.

—Col. Winston, formerly of Cairo, and who at present resides near New Grand Chain, is in the city visiting his sister, Mrs. Jacob G. Lynch.
—Among those who went to Charleston yesterday to attend the fair were Mrs. Metcalf and a lady friend, and Mr. Marsh Warren and Walter Pettis.
—Heilbron & Well are selling gentlemen's hats at astonishing low prices, and have a complete line of them.
—Numerous improvements have lately been made on Commercial avenue, which add much to its outward appearance, as well as to the comfort of the merchants.
—The Ohio Levee for the past week or more has presented a business-like appearance, and the hearts of all who frequent that part of the city are glad.
—Don't forget the present of ten yards of dry goods at Heilbron & Well's.
—A new sidewalk is now being put down in front of the Alexander County Bank, and Taber Brothers, the jewelers, are having their stoop and doors remodelled.
—The Ancient Order of Hibernians are to give a grand ball on the 18th of October. They are making preparations, and propose having it exceed anything of the like yet given.
—An accession has been made to the BULLETIN's brass band and clog-dancing troupe. We have a young man who can imitate the cornet. The fates are against us, and we'll have to submit.

—The Rev. B. Y. George, who has accepted the call of the Presbyterian church of this city, is expected here some time during this week, and will preach his first sermon to his new congregation next Sunday morning.
—Ladies' wrappers and suits at very low rates and newest styles can be found at Heilbron & Well's, 142 and 144 Commercial avenue.
—There are less colored loungers to be found in Cairo at present than for many days past. Cotton-picking time has come, and they have all gone South to coin money, that they may come back and have a "bully time" as long as it lasts.
—Morris' minstrel troupe left this city yesterday afternoon for Charleston, where they appeared at Bridges' hall last evening. The troupe undoubtedly were greeted with a loud huzzah, as they deserved, and amused and satisfied their audience.
—A number of distinguished railroad men were in the city yesterday, among whom were L. H. Fox, chief engineer; J. F. Tucker, general superintendent, and W. K. Ackerman, general auditor, of the Illinois Central road, and A. E. Frost, general manager of the New Orleans, St. Louis & Chicago railroad.

—Large stock ladies' furnishing goods, to be sold very cheap at C. Hanny's.
—Messrs. Schlesinger, Schuch, Herbert, Haysinger, Koehler, Heibacker, Eilenburg and Bolander, members of the Cairo Cocomordia Singing Society, left yesterday morning for Charleston, where they attended the fair and delighted the hundreds of people with their finely executed songs.
—Wilson at Liberal Hall to-night.
—Meeting of the Citizens' Association Friday night.
—Dr. Jennelle, the popular dentist, has returned from a trip to Michigan.
—Large stock gent's furnishing goods at very low prices, at C. Hanny's.
—A Marx's clothing store will be closed to-day on account of the new year. It will re-open early to-morrow morning, as usual, for business.
—Remember the meeting of the Citizens' Association in the Council Chamber on Friday night. It will be addressed by A. Conings, Esq.
—Frank McFarlin, the man who became grieved at the manner in which the BULLETIN spoke of his misfortune, was on trial in the circuit court yesterday.
—The finest stock of children's cloaks, also caps and bonnets, at lower prices than ever, can be found at Heilbron & Well's, 142 and 144 Commercial avenue.
—The first ball under the auspices of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, will be given at Scheel's Hall, Monday evening, October 18, 1876. Tickets, one dollar.

—The calicoose is doing a very poor business at present. Times are so dull with Jailer McCarthy that he is said to have fallen into a state of melancholy.
—Mrs. Dr. Casey, of Mount City, still suffers from her paralytic stroke. She has not recovered the use of her right side, but in other respects her symptoms are better.
—The weather is getting cool, and the Milwaukee and all other kinds of beer are getting out of date. Something stronger—something that will warm a fellow up—is called for now.
—The canvass for the County Treasurer has begun. Already we are informed that three candidates for the office are in the field, and that an exciting race for the place may be looked for.
—Mayor Winter, on the tug excursion yesterday morning, had a lot of "greens" with him for the use of Mr. Davis of the Sun; but Davis remained at home and the greens of the Mayor wilted.
—It is not to be forgotten that the Citizens' Association will meet in the Council Chamber to hear the report of the committee on the School question, and may be to discuss the levee business.
—Large stock of domestic prints, muslins, and tickings, at low prices, at C. Hanny's.
—Police business is "fast growing" no better. Were it not for the numerous colored people who go to law for the most trivial causes, we would seldom be called upon more than once a week to chronicle any item of news pertaining to our police courts.
—J. R. Cunningham, Esq., now of Mount City, is so crowded with law business he cannot devote all his mind to his hack. He has applied to Mayor Friganza, of Mr. Cunningham's present place of residence, to drive his hack for him. We get this information from Mr. Mertz.

—Sproat's oysters have been tested and have proved to be the best that ever came to this city. He will have another shipment to arrive Wednesday, a. m., and on Saturday, a. m. Those who can appreciate a good oyster will not fail to call at the time specified. He will not sell an oyster he cannot warrant as first-class. Those who were disappointed in the first lot can depend upon a supply hereafter. 9-28-3t.
—Two wayward colored sisters were before Judge Bird yesterday for indulging too freely in abusive language. They were fined $5 each. One paid and went her way in peace; the other left the courtroom with the chief of police, in search of friends who would lend her the necessary amount to pay her fine.
—Large stock of dress goods, merinos, alpacaes, poplins, cashmeres, very cheap, at C. Hanny's.
—The tug Cache left the wharf about nine o'clock yesterday morning for a trip up the Mississippi river. She had on board a number of Cairo gentlemen, who are interested in the welfare of our city, and the government engineer, Mr. Allen, who is here for the purpose of inspecting the banks of the Mississippi, above the city, where the recent washes have taken place.
—Norma Lynch, a little miss of six years of age, daughter of County Clerk Lynch, entertained a large number of her little friends at her home on Walnut street last night. The occasion was the sixth birthday of Miss Norma, and the little hostess did the honors in the most entertaining yet homelike manner. Her guests were highly pleased and enjoyed the party hugely.

—Large stock dry goods, without reserve, at very low prices, at C. Hanny's.
—Again we would kindly inform the people of this city that throwing broken glassware into the public streets is against the ordinances of the city. While walking along several of the streets yesterday, we noticed in several places pieces of broken bottles and lamp chimneys lying in the road. Those of our people who persist in this offense should be taught a lesson by the authorities.
—About 9 o'clock yesterday morning, while a young negro boy named Jenkins was riding a horse up Washington avenue, another negro urchin ran out into the middle of the street and directly in front of Jenkins' horse, and made such a noise that the animal became frightened, gave a sudden lunge to one side and threw his rider upon the ground so hard that the breath was completely knocked out of him. He was not seriously injured, however, but was badly scared.
—Large stock of woolen goods, flannels, linseys and sheeting flannels, very cheap, at C. Hanny's.
—The St. Louis, Iron Mountain & Southern railroad company are running an accommodation train, during the Charleston fair, from this city to Charleston, which leaves Cairo at eight o'clock in the morning, arriving at Charleston at nine.

—The train leaves Cairo at eight o'clock in the morning, arriving at Charleston at nine. On the return trip in the evening, the train leaves Charleston at five o'clock, arriving at Cairo at six. The fare for the round trip is one dollar and eighty-five cents. The fair now in progress is said to be one of the most interesting and enjoyable ever held by the association, and scores of people from Cairo visit the institution daily.
—The man who saw the eclipse yesterday morning has not reported at this office.
—See notice of pocket book lost. Who found it? A liberal reward is offered for its recovery.
—Mayor Winter is selling, at his old stand, fresh oysters warranted to please every time.
—A number of our townspeople will attend the Charleston, Missouri, fair to-day. This is the big day over there.
—Who wants a bargain in a ten-horse power upright engine? or an upright boiler, or both? It can be found at the BULLETIN office. We have too much power.

—Our local literary young man of the BULLETIN—left yesterday afternoon for Charleston, where he personated "tauborine" in a negro minstrel show last night. Hence these columns, &c.
—The candidates for County Treasurer are warning to their work. At least several gentlemen suspected of a desire to obtain that office are now busily at the work of shaking hands with the dear people.
—The Mayor has been abused for scattering what is called "Paducah sugar" on the streets, but without reason. He is opposed to the sugar. But the fact is, the gravel is not "sugar," and it has not injured our streets any.
—Mr. Dr. Casey is, we have been informed and are gratified to be able to make the announcement, improving, and hopes are now entertained that she will recover from the stroke of paralysis that so nearly deprived her of life.
—Mr. E. V. Wilson, the Spiritual medium, will meet his friends in Liberal Religious hall to-night. By his friends we mean all the public who please to favor him with a call, and will listen to what he has to say to them. No admission fee will be charged.
—Mr. and Mrs. Thomas P. Halliday are rejoicing over the birth of a daughter—their first. They have been blessed with many boys, and now a girl? The young lady, whose appearance has created so much joy in the Aldermanic branch of the Halliday family was born Tuesday night.

—Where is the "Qui Vive Coterie"? Where is the "St. Charles Club"? (we feel an interest in the "St. Charles Club.") Where are the "Thalians"? and the "Boating Club"? Where is Wilcox or any person interested? The season has opened and no parties have even been talked of or heard from. A "hungry" hop would be better than none at all.
—Major Allen, the government official, who made an examination of our Mississippi levee and the river bank above the levee, will report to his superior, who will determine what, if anything, is to be done to relieve the levee and river embankment from the effects of the current of the river. We believe something will grow out of this examination.
—Mayor Winter, Walt McKee and other distinguished citizens accompanied Major Allen on his Mississippi river bank examining tug trip yesterday morning. One of the other distinguished citizens was Alderman Halliday, and the other was Mr. Peter Cuhl, Mr. Chas. Thrupp and we were also with the Major, but Thrupp and we are modest citizens.
—A correspondent of the Sun is of the opinion that our western levee will be undermined and destroyed, and that a new levee must be constructed. He says the Cairo & St. Louis railroad company will not build the new levee; that the trustees of the property will not build it; that the government will do nothing to relieve us, and that, therefore, the city will have to do the work. He suggests a public meeting to take the matter into consideration and appoint committees to make estimates of the cost of the proposed work, etc. We believe a new levee must be constructed, and that the matter should soon be taken in hand; but it may be well to await the return of Col. Taylor from New York. He is consulting his "people" about this levee trouble, and may come back prepared to do what ever is necessary to protect the city. He has, every one will admit, a very large interest in the subject, and ought to be heard.

CITIZEN COURT.

September Term, 1875.—Mon. 11. J. Baker, Presiding.

Twenty-First Day.
—The case of McFarlin was continued yesterday. The evidence showed the following facts: That De Baum, on the night of the robbery was asleep in a boarding house in the city of Dongola; McFarlin was gambling in a room situated on the floor above DeBaum's; no person saw the prisoner enter the room in which the principal prosecuting witness was asleep. De Baum awoke at 1:15 a. m., just as the down train on the I. C. R. R. arrived at Dongola, and upon glancing around he noticed his watch, for which he paid over $175, and revolver, which cost him $16. He started upon a hunt for his missing property, took the down train and soon arrived at Cairo. He ascertained at J. K. Lane's saloon that the owner of that establishment had purchased the watch from McFarlin, for the sum of $20; that he (Lane) then sent the watch to Taber Bros., De Baum afterwards found his watch at the place designated by Lane. Deputy Sheriff Cain secured the revolver from the prisoner at John McNulty's hardware store.

The above is the evidence for the prosecution.
The defendant testified that he purchased the watch and revolver from a person on the train; that he did not know the property was stolen at the time he bought it.
Mr. Linegar appeared for the defendant and made a very good address in behalf of his client. Mr. J. H. Mulkey and his son, Mr. Wm. Mulkey, represented the People. The first address, after hearing the evidence, was made by Mr. Wm. Mulkey, the closing by Mr. J. H. Mulkey. The speech of Judge Mulkey included over an hour, and several times he overhauled the character of the prisoner in a thorough manner. At half past six the court had not adjourned, as it was waiting for the jury to bring in a verdict.

Don't Forget!
If you want tinware, stoves, etc., that A. Halley has changed his place of business and can now be found at 114 Commercial avenue, next door to the Arab engine house, where he will be pleased to see you and give you bargains as of old. 9-30-1t

"Portraits Glaces."
This is a new style of picture now being produced by Wm. Winter, the artist, of this city. These pictures are creating much interest in all the principal Eastern and Western cities, being altogether new. They are unlike photographs, being raised and beautifully enameled over the entire surface, soft in tone, but distinct in the lights and shades. No one who sees them fails to admire them, or to give the artist an order. We have been shown a number of pictures of well-known ladies and gentlemen of the city, and have no hesitation in pronouncing them perfectly splendid. We would therefore advise all who take interest in such matters or desire pictures, to call upon Mr. Winter at his gallery and examine his work in this new branch of the shadow-capturing art. 9-14-1t
